G. U. AND INDIANS MEET TOMORROW

Contest Is the Only One Scheduled to Be Played in Washington.

VIRGINIA MAY BEAT VANDERBILT'S ELEVEN

Orange and Blue Has at Least an Even Chance to Win. C. U. and Gallaudet Play.

The game between Georgetown and Carlisle is the only one scheduled to be played in Washington tomorrow. The Maryland Aggies were booked to play Rock Hill in the morning, but the engagement was canceled by the latter a few days ago. Catholic University will meet Washington College at Chestertown and Gallaudet will go to Westminster to pit its strength against Western Mary-

There is no doubt that Georgetown is going to have a hard game with the Indians. If the hilltoppers hold the redskins to four touchdowns they will be doing well. That is just about as much as can be expected of the Blue and Gray. It is not thought that it has a chance to win, aithough such an outcome is not an impossibility. Judging by the form shown so far this season, the Indians ought to take the long end of the score by at least the margin mentioned.

If the Blue and Gray were going against Pennsylvania tomorrow there would be no one who would figure that he victory of the Quakers would be less than a margin of four touchdowns, yet the Indians outplayed them by a whole lot, if reports of the contest are true. It has been the case for the last two ears for the followers of the game to hink Georgetown was going to win, or t least had a fair chance of so doing he result has been that a great deal of disappointment has been expressed over the result. It is unfair for people when the chances all appear on the op-posite side. That kind of an attitude causes much unfavorable comment relative to Georgetown's showing,

The Catholic University eleven is fig-uring on a victory over the Washington College team. The Brooklanders have been coming well lately and have been showing better form than in the previous part of the season. Coach Greer stated his morning that he expected a victory He said that his team was stronger now than at any other time this year and that they will have no game tomorrow than at any other time this year and would give the Chestertown lads the battle of their lives.

Gallaudet wants a victory over Western Maryland College by a wide margin. The Kendall Greeners feel that they can win by just as big a score as that by which the Maryland Aggies defeated the upstaters two weeks ago. The game will be played without Moore, captain and quarterback, but the position will be fairly well taken care of by Foltz. The fact that Foltz will be at quarterback, though, that Foltz will be at quarterback, though, have another practice with Georgetown. means that one of the end positions will

The big game of the south will be played at Charlottesville tomorrow. It is the contest in which Vanderbilt is to play Virginia. The result of the game last doubtedly be considered as having a real doubtedly be considered as having a real year, which was played in Nashville, was good chance to win the title. If Business to 0 in favor of Vanderbilt. Virginia hopes to avenge that loss by winning by goodly margin tomorrow.

It seems that Virginia has an excellent hance to beat Vanderbilt, although the heavier team today than has represented has been may prove stronger. Nashville eleven may prove stronger than is expected. The team which defeated Virginia last fall was a whole lot stronger than the one Vanderbilt will take to Charlottesville. There is hardly any comparison between the two. The record of Vanderbilt this year shows it to be much weaker and its crushing detailed. The big game in the east tomorrow is to be much weaker, and its crushing de-feat at the hands of Michigan last week that scheduled between Harvard and is not going to lend confidence to it. Vir-Cornell. It will be the first time in quite ginia is undoubtedly a more powerful awhile that the two universities have mbination than a year ago. The met on the gridiron, and while it is albrange and Blue is so much stronger most certain that Harvard will win, the hat many are already claiming it is one game will be of much interest. whole has been much above the standard FOOT BALL GAMES of the last few years, and much is expected of it. It will not be exceeding he expectations of the players and those back of the squad if a complete victory over Vanderbilt is secured.

Virginia is certainly in a mighty fine position this year as regards its prob-able claims on the championship of the south. The Orange and Blue eleven has wonderful chance to win the undishas already disposed of one of the ig teams, and if it wins from Vanderilt tomorrow it will have only to destrongest aggregation outside ties. Of course, the North Carolina University is to be played Thanksgiving day, but it is not likely that it will prove very formidable. In fact, the result of that game is almost a foregone

With Virginia beating Georgia, Van-derbilt, Georgetown and North Carowhat would be done at Charlottesville. The team would be heralded as the greatest ever produced in this section, and not without reason. It would be an accomplishment deserving of much

The first distance run of the year will be held tomorrow under the auspices of the Carroll Institute.
